

P.A.R.C. MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

PLYMOUTH AGAINST RETAIL CRIME (P.A.R.C.)

Organisation/company name .....

As the representative for the above organisation/company, I wish to become a member of P.A.R.C. I understand that by signing this application I undertake that my organisation will abide by the conditions set out in the constitution, code of practice, operating guidelines, data integrity and other scheme documentation that is available for inspection at either the City Centre Manager's office, the P.A.R.C. Manager's office or at Charles Cross Police Station. P.A.R.C. is an initiative operated by retailers / businesses in partnership with the police and other relevant agencies and organisations, through a partnership agreement with each of the signed up members who have agreed to the principles outlined in the protocol document entitled "Plymouth Business Crime Reduction Partnership" specifically the constitution, code of practice, operating procedures, data integrity agreement and other agreed partnership procedures contained therein.

Any breach of this agreement will be dealt with in accordance to the disciplinary procedures outlined in the partnership protocols and documentation guide. Making an unauthorised disclosure of data may lead to criminal prosecution. This includes any electrical mail sent to members or individuals by Devon & Cornwall Constabulary and/or Plymouth Against Retail Crime.

In an effort to facilitate the issuing of PARC target exclusion photographs to PARC members only, PARC propose to utilise the availability of e-mail via Devon & Cornwall Constabulary. Please ensure you have included your e-mail address with all the other information required in the relevant section below. If hard copies of the exclusion photographs are required you will need to contact Paul Martin, Retail Crime Manager, direct on his mobile phone telephone number 07711 589964.

Organisation name ..... agree to data only being accessed or disclosed by or to authorised persons and as a P.A.R.C. member will comply with the data protection principles.

PARC is also in partnership with the Youth Offending Team and with regard to offences committed by under 18 year olds to your organisation, the Plymouth Youth Offending Team will engage with these young people to make them aware of the consequences to themselves and the victims of their crime.

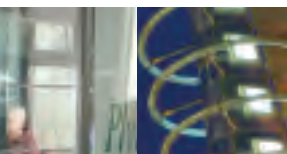

Please complete:-

Organisation name..... would / would not* be interested in receiving a letter of apology and can / cannot* offer reparation tasks to be carried out. *(delete as appropriate)
All existing PARC members benefit from the local Community Police Messaging service, a way of contacting you quickly and easily to ask for your help to prevent or solve a crime. You will be contacted by Devon & Cornwall Constabulary Community Messaging officer with further information inviting you to join this excellent crime prevention service.

Finally, even if you are already a PARC member, please complete and return this form in order that your organisation's updated details are recorded.
