For further advice you may also wish to contact Planning Aid. Planning Aid is a charitable organisation that provides free independent and professional advice on town and country planning issues. This advice is for community groups and individuals. There are many ways you can get involved including:

1. exhibitions
   All the information will be displayed and all the documents are available at all the libraries in Plymouth, all the housing offices as well as the Plymouth City Council Civic Centre First Stop and Windsor House Offices.

2. Surgeries
   Plymouth City Council Officers can team up with Plymouth Adult and Community Learning Service to enable you to access all the resources. They are so came along and find out how you can access the learning service to enable you to access the learning materials and community events and find out more!

3. Group Events

4. Local

   Plymouth’s Local Development Framework goes through different stages of consultation:

   1. Invited consultation – a chance to say whether you agree with the preferred options for the area and comment on them. The preferred options are submitted to the Planning Authority for approval.
   2. Issues and Options Consultation – a chance to say whether you think the plan has been prepared in the correct way. The plan is assessed by the Planning Authority who assesses the document and decides whether it has been prepared in the correct way.
   3. Preferred Options consultation – a chance to say whether you think the plan has been prepared in the correct way. The inspector then produces a ‘binding report’ which advises on changes before the plan goes through to the next stage of consultation.
   4. Public Examination – a Planning Inspector is appointed to examine the plan. The Planning Inspector can be appointed by the Council.
   5. Public Examination – a Planning Inspector is appointed to examine the plan. The Planning Inspector can be appointed by the Council.
   6. The inspector then produces a ‘binding report’ which advises on changes before the plan goes through to the next stage of consultation.
